ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE LOWELL BEER COMPANY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, the undersigned, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the State of Arizona, and to that end declare as follows:

WITNESSES:

ARTICLE I.
The name of the corporation shall be LOWELL BEER COMPANY and the incorporators those signing this instrument, being Michael Schmalzel, whose residence and post office address is Lowell, Arizona, and John Louko whose residence and post office address is Lowell, Arizona.

ARTICLE II.
The principal place of business of the corporation shall be at Lowell, Arizona, and the corporation may establish branch offices at such other places as it may determine.

ARTICLE III.
The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by the corporation is to associate together in corporate form, and with corporate powers, for the purpose of mutual profit the present owners of the property of a certain association known as Lowell Beer Company, and to take over the property of said association, the corporation to act as the agent of its stockholders and members in the purchase of beer and like commodities used in the saloon and retail liquor business, and to distribute to such stockholders monthly the money saved each member in buying in quantity through the company; the corporation shall also have the power to in anywise, at retail or wholesale, to generally deal in the commodities handled by it with any person or persons; and shall have the power to make all contracts, and buy and sell and in any wise deal in all property necessary to effectuate any of the objects or purposes of the corporation, and to accomplish such purposes by determining the rights and duties incident to stock ownership.

ARTICLE IV.
The amount of capital stock authorized in fifteen thousand ($15,000) dollars, divided into one hundred (100) shares of the par value of one hundred fifty ($150) dollars per share. Eight shares of said stock representing the sum of twelve hundred ($1200) dollars shall be issued to the associates of the Lowell Beer Company, in consideration of the transfer of the properties of said association to this corporation; and the balance of the stock shall remain unissued until wholly or in part disposed of by the Board of Directors in accordance with the bylaws of the corporation; as one of the objects of the corporation is co-operation amongst its stockholders, the rights duties and obligations incident to stock ownership, may be varied from the usual incidents of stock ownership in such manner as the corporation in any legal mode may determine.

ARTICLE V.
The time of the commencement of the corporation shall be upon the recording of a duly certified copy of these articles in the office of the County Recorder of Cochise County, and the delivery of a certificate of incorporation to the company by the Corporation Commission of Arizona, and its termination twenty-five years thereafter.

ARTICLE VI.
The officers by whom the affairs of the corporation are to be conducted are a Board of Directors of five in number, and a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board of Directors may find necessary to establish in order to carry on the business of the Company, provided that the office of Secretary and Treasurer may be united in one person, who need not be a member of the Board of Directors; that the directors of the corporation shall be the following: Harry Jennings, President; James Harnes, Vice-President; M.
